

Images for zoom discussion:

Artist of the Month

Her work is an exploration of her surroundings, a record of interactions with her environment. Using collaged elements to document a specific moment in time and space. Objects from the location map the layout of the space in abstracted ways creating a sense of place.

Kory
Twaddle

